KB-100L - SOHO Internet Broadband Router with 4 LAN ports
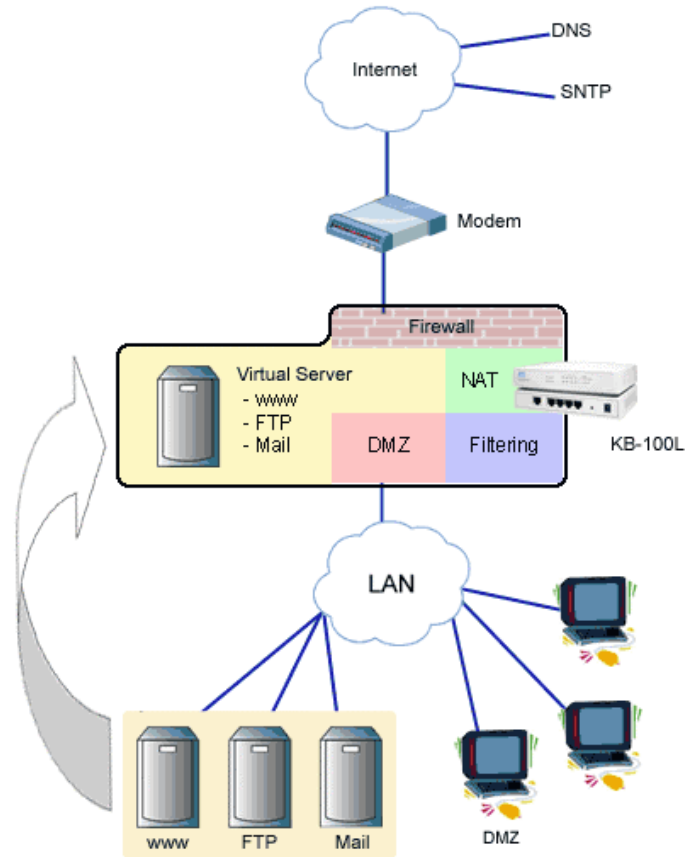

Introduction

KB-100L is designed to simplify the complexity of conventional IP sharing. With built-in DHCP server, network node IP addresses are assigned automatically at central location for ease management. KB-100L also comes with built-in 4-port switch, which permits sharing of network resources, including printers, files, Internet service. While permitting freedom of resource sharing, KB-100L offers firewall function to isolate private workstations from the public to prevent potential undesired direct access from the Internet.

Key features:

- Shares a ISP services and network resources to LAN groups

- Supports PPPoE and PPTP protocol to for Cable modem, Fixed xDSL, PPPoE Dail-up xDSL, PPTP xDSL

- Built-in DHCP server for automatic IP address assignment for local network

- Firewall protection

- Simple web-based configuration

- Virtual server mapping

- Demilitarized zone (DMZ)

Application

Network Ports

- 4 x 10/100Mbps, Shielded RJ45
- 1 x 10Mbps 10Base-T, Shielded RJ45, ADSL/Cable Modem connection.

Ordering Information

KB-100L	SOHO Internet Broadband Router with 4 LAN ports

If you have any question or would like to know more about KTI products, please feel free to contact:

Email: kti@ktinet.com.tw

Office: 886-2-2698-3878